Breeding

You have a very special mare and have always wanted a mule of your own. Where do you find that special jack to complete the match made in heaven? Why, DiaMond D Mule Farm of course! We have standing at stud General Bob, who is a 59" gaited jack. Bob throws great looking mule foals that are quiet minded, very trainable, love people and love to work. Color you say? Bob has a great history of throwing spotted babies and foals with chrome! Gaited you say? Bob can do that too. When you breed to Bob your chances of having the much sought after gaited mule increase tremendously. Bob is one of a kind and has a proven record of wonderful foals on the ground. With a live foal guarantee and a multiple mare discount, there really is no reason why Bob is not the jack for your mare.

Stud Fee $450 plus $5 a day mare care

Training

Why not get your young ones started the right way here at DiaMond D Mule Farm where we believe in Natural Horsemanship? Morgan Goolsby, an accomplished horsewoman and our Barn Manager, has that special touch to get them started gently and almost effortlessly. Morgan and Dora work together to give our clients a finished product that we are all proud to call "finished the DiaMond D way". We also offer tune-ups for previously trained horses or mules of any age. Do you have trouble keeping your horse or mule in gait? Let us retrain your mount, to collect and carry themselves correctly.

Our process gives you a more comfortable ride, and of course, bragging rights!

Rates are $450 per month. We provide quality hay three times a day and our 12% grain twice a day.

Lessons

Ever dreamed about learning how to ride? We strongly believe you're never too young or old to learn! Come find out why riding is a full mind and body therapy session. Riding keeps you looking and feeling great while enjoying the beautiful outdoors with a life-long friend by your side. We offer one-on-one private lessons, scheduled at your convenience and around your busy schedules. Our large indoor arena provides a controlled environment and protection from the elements. Come learn at your own pace!

Rates are $30 per hour on one of our well trained mules.
